

LOST

Please Help!

I bought this bear and it was posted through a courier and they have lost it. It could turn up anywhere though it was tracked to the local depot SE coast, probably Bournemouth or Southampton. The only sure way to know it is mine is if it is still in or attached to the grey polythene mailer the seller shipped it in with some of my details on although I think I would know it apart from others as to me, this 2014 "Jasper" teddy bear from a top London store is quite distinctive. Thank you :)
