

LOST

Please Help!

Coco went missing overnight. She is a fluffy black & white cat. Answers to Coco or kitty. She's mainly an indoor cat, loves backyards but certainly not familiar with streets and roads. We have moved homes recently from Kingsford so all the more unfamiliar. Coco is new to the area so she is frightened and will most likely be hiding somewhere close by — please check in your backyards, and even garages, boxes big or small. please provide food or water to lure her somewhere safe. Please help us!
