

LOST

Please Help!

I need your help! On 19.1.25, my son lost his beloved grey mouse teddy at Heathrow Terminal 4 Arrivals, somewhere between Baggage Claim Belt 1 and the car park/taxi rank on the ground floor. This isn't just any teddy. We bought it four years ago at Dubai Duty Free, and it has been his absolute pride and joy ever since. He sleeps with it every night, takes it everywhere, and has been asking for it every single day since it went missing.
