

LOST

Please Help!

Such a long shot but I lost my bracelet on the train from Barnehurst station (21:01)to London bridge station . It holds a lot of sentimental value and was passed down for my 21st birthday a few months ago . I remember having it on the train as I tucked it up my sleeve . But when I got into flat iron by the station I didn't have it . No one was around at the station to ask once I realised Please please please if anyone's picked this up let me know . It's not worth much but to me it is .
