Please Help!

A week ago on Feb 20 my dog penny got out .. shelter picked him up and someone got there before me and said he was there's . I've had him since a baby and have videos pics to prove he's my dog.. I really just want him back ... he's been through so much with me . I had him scheduled to be fixed and microchipped in April through tcap and he got out before we made it to that point ... please if people can spread the word maybe the people who took him will see it... I have a 6 year old that was raised wit
