

LOST

Please Help!

Hi guys, long shot but my girlfriend lost her engagement ring on Thursday March 6th. If found, it would have been: On the street near Matinee Coffee in Marrickville In an uber (grey Kia Carnival) At Sydney Airport, Qantas terminal On Qantas flight QF749 to Adelaide The ring is a gold ring, with a circular cut blue/green sapphire and small diamonds either side. Can send more photos to verify if anybody has seen or found this ring. Obviously gutted and just casting the net as wide as possible.
