MAZDA CAR KEY FOUND Hello!! I went yesterday to Bondi to pick up a secondhand mattress and a very nice local who was just walking by spotted us and helped us to fit it in the back of my car. However, during the process his car key must have fallen in my backseat without anyone noticing. He was a man in his 40s(?) wearing a Sea Sheperd tie-dye shirt and a book in his hand. If anyone knows him please help us connect!!
