Lost cat. Edit; The grey female has been found! Now we're just looking for the **NEUTERED** male! **Quarry Area** Last night at around 3 am, my husband opened the front door, and under his legs, our female cat, darted out, (Shes in heat and saw a male stray) As my husband was trying to get her in the house, our male cat darted out. So now both cats are missing!! Please help us locate them and bring them home!
