

LOST

Please Help!

Guinness went missing from his home near North Belle Grove in Catonsville sometime last night or early this morning. We think he snuck out while his people were coming home or leaving for work. He's been an indoor cat all his life and is very nervous around strangers. His distinguishing features are the white streak on his nose and his tail is crooked from being broken as a kitten.

Please contact me online:

<https://whiteboomerang.com/post/42839216157/>

