

LOST

Please Help!

Lost id: Hello everyone, For those of you who were at the Establishment on Tuesday evening, I forgot a little black forclaz backpack with my work stuff inside (shirt and white apron) but above all my French PASSPORT which is the last piece of ID I hadn't managed to lose yet (name: Antoine de Maistre). I forgot the little backpack on one of the tables at the entrance on the right (the bar found nothing). I absolutely need it in the next few days as several trips are planned.
