

LOST

Please Help!

Lost Item: My husband's work van was stolen from west Edmonton sometime between 11pm last night and 7am this morning. Has all his tools and equipment, entire livelihood in here. Currently has 32' ladder on drivers side and green ladder on passenger. It has an exhaust port and power outlet on the rear drivers side, some body damage drivers side, passenger taillight has small chip, just behind passenger door there's a port installed to allow hose to come out of van.
