Please Help!

Lost Item : Hi everybody, my sons bike was stolen from this address yesterday night. While looking for it yesterday afternoon a young man rode by on a bike exact make and he was wearing gloves. I asked the young man if it was his bike he said yes and I repeated he replied yes and rode away quickly. I did not get a picture it was a brief 30 second interaction. Anyway if anyone sees this bike or anything please let me know. I have my receipt as well as this was bought last month.
