

LOST

Please Help!

Lost Cat : Hi all, I am reaching out to request your assistance in locating my beautiful cat, who has unfortunately gone missing. She was being cared for over the weekend, and last seen at approximately 2 PM on Sunday. Although she is not typically one to wander, it appears she has decided to take an unexpected walk. I would greatly appreciate it if everyone could keep an eye out for her and let me know if you find her. She does have a collar with a tag on it. Area: Harrisdale
