Please Help!

Lost Cat : Eton st /Highlands st JOONDANNA I just adopted this cat on Monday and it escaped when one of my housemates left for work this morning around 6 pm. She's a girl and she doesn't have a collar yet, but she is microchipped. If found please take her to a local vet or back to cat haven so I can pick her up. She is quite shy and a bit of an escape artist. And she needs her medication for anxiety. I'm very worried because of the weather.
