Please Help!

The item I lost wasn't expensive or an heirloom... but it had great sentimental value to our family. It's a small (about 15cm?) stuffed giraffe (his name is Jeff!) who's been our lucky travel mascot for well over a decade. He escaped from my handbag at about 4pm on 20 June 2025, behind the Albert Memorial in Kensington Gardens. I've contacted the park, but no luck... We live in South Africa, but we wouldn't mind paying for a courier to get him back home. I've attached a picture - look at that face...
