Please Help!

We lost our daughter's stuffed toy/ blanket supposed to be a butterfly, pink and white. He is 7yrs old with a slightly chewed off ear. We think she left it on a BA plane - our flight was BA0579 from Milan Linate to London Heathrow on the 28th of October. I have called the lost and found daily and keep updating the website where they upload lost items. He is our daughter's oldest and best friend, any help would I be much appreciated as he is deeply missed!
