Please Help!

A much-loved Jellycat Bashful Bunny (grey/light brown/taupe), medium size, with a pale pink nose, long floppy ears, and a very soft, worn, slightly shaggy texture. She is extremely sentimental and has a very distinctive well-loved look. Last seen on 16 August 2025 somewhere between London Bridge Hospital (Tooley Street / London Bridge) and Sidcup Station. Unsure where she was lost. Please contact me if found — reward offered.
