Please Help!

We recently came back from Rome Italy a few weeks ago and had all of our luggage stolen from our taxi van whilst we walk around a shopping centre! ☹️ This also included a JD Sports bag that little did they know, contained a very sentimental teddy bear that belongs to my daughter! This teddy bear means so much to her (and myself!) It was her first love and the first teddy she became obsessed with since birth! Please whoever has it, please please please return to me! This teddy means the world to her and to me too! If I could have one thing back from all the suitcases, that would be it! ♥️ the teddy bear is unique as it has her name Kayla on its left foot! We was in the shopping centre Centro Commerciale Romaest so anywhere surrounding that area.
