

LOST

Please Help!

I have a strong reason to believe someone took my Canon Camera G7 ii last Thursday in downtown Manhattan or Graham Ave, Brooklyn or Bed-stuy. They are now selling it for twice the price on FB Marketplace. My camera has a slight bend on the rotating clicker and was in a black camera bag. I have the charger. I simply want my memory card back as it contains sentimental photos of my family that I can never replace. Please if you see this and you have it leave my SD card with the bartender staff
