Please Help!

Disney Piglet Fisher Price/Mattel cuddly toy. Accidentally put into charity shop bag by family and we realised too late. I should have run off it and tried to get him back, but tried to be "grown up". Parents then got ill and I looked after them, so am looking for Piglet now. His eyes are a bit further apart and the pink of his suit is a bit paler than I've seen in photos of others. Sorry about the original picture - the camera flash went off! Any info greatly appreciated.
