

LOST

Please Help!

Hi, My 6-year-old lost his disposable camera with all his pictures from our NYC trip. He had his Kodak disposable in a Minecraft fanny pack that he may have left either in the waiting area of Moynihan Train Hall at Penn Station or on the Vermonter 57 Amtrak train heading south on 3/31/24. He was really excited to see how his pictures turned out since it was his first time using a camera and I was hoping someone might have come across it. Thanks for reading this.
